

RECEIVED

MAY 13 1993

FCC MAIL ROOM

Federal Communications Commission

Page 2

May 7, 1993

For a county with population of under 20,000 an expenditure of this magnitude, that does not have to made, is ridicules.

I hope that a decision on this matter will consider the massive costs that would occur to local levels of government because of the proposed action and not adopt such a disastrous rule.

Thank you for your indulgence.

Very truly yours,

Jerry G. Weber, P.E.
Clayton County Engineer